

NAJAF TO KARBALA WALKING GUIDE

Imam Jafar-e-Sadiq (A.S) said, 'If one of our Shia goes for Imam Hussain's (a.s.) Ziarat, then he will not return but all his sins will be forgiven. For every step that he or his mount takes, 1,000 virtues are written for him, 1,000 sins are forgiven and his status is elevated by 1,000 degrees.' (Behaarul Anwar, vol 101, pg 25, tradition 26; Kamiluz Ziaraat, pg 134)

Recommended Stops/Milestones:

- Keep on walking until the poles start - Preferably don't stop before the poles' starts.
- Spend the 1st Night in any Moukkab somewhere between 400-500 Poles.
- Spend the 2nd Night in any Moukkab somewhere between 1000-1100 Poles.
- You should take stops after every 100 or so poles to re-group with family/friends and take a rest of 5-10 minutes to ease your muscles.

Walking Notes:

- Start walking after Fajr and stop walking at Maghrib.
- Don't over-stretch yourself during the walk. Take a rest, when required.
- After Namaz e Maghrib, get a place to sleep in one of the Camps or Hussainiyah - There are thousands, so you don't have to worry much.

Belongings' Notes:

- Try not to get too much weight with you. Don't take anything to eat or drink, there is already too much on the way.
- Take any regular medicines that would be required during the 2-3 days' walk.
- Prefer a Lightweight backpack instead of a Shopper to carry stuff during your journey.
- Proper Clothes to Avoid the Cold - Socks, Hand Gloves, Cap, Ear-cover, Jacket & preferably a shawl.
- Any suitable Cream for rashes, if you normally get them.
- You can get a small pocket Quran/Duas/Ziyarat or put them in your mobile (if possible) to pass your time while walking.
- Don't wear packed/new shoes - Try to wear something comfortable and open instead.
- Passport, Mobile Charger (if you are carrying a mobile).

Important Notes:

- You don't have to worry much about doing it completely. If you ever think, that you cannot continue at any point, you can take a van to reach Karbala, there are hundreds everywhere. An average male/female above the age of 10 years is 99.99% likely to complete it on the 3rd day without any issues. You should at least give it a try – it is definitely worth it!!
- Make sure you know the name of the Hotel; you are intended to stay in Karbala.
- If you want to make a phone call, make it before Fajr to get your calls through, as they normally don't go through rest of the day due to high network traffic. You can use GPRS to communicate though.

Sayings of Imam Jafar-e-Sadiq (A.S) About Ziyarat-e-Imam Hussain (A.S):

1. When the visitor leaves the house, each and every spot that he steps on, prays for him. (Behaarul Anwar, vol 101, pg 15, tradition 14)
2. When the rays of the sun fall on the visitor of Imam's (a.s.) shrines, it consumes his sins like the fire consumes wooden sticks. The sun does not leave any sin on his body and he returns home sinless. In fact on his return he is granted a status that is not even given to those who shed their blood in Allah's path. (Behaarul Anwar, vol 101, pg 15, tradition 14; Kamiluz Ziaraat, pg 298)
3. When a Shia knows Imam Hussain's (a.s.) right over the people and leaves his house for Imam's (a.s.) ziarat in this condition, without any pride and conceit, then a 1,000 angels accompany him from the right, with another 1,000 angels on the left. And he will be rewarded as if he has performed 1,000 Hajj and 1,000 Umrah with a prophet or with the successor (wasi) of a prophet. (Behaarul Anwar, vol 101, pg 91, tradition 33)
